Doug –

I want to apologize for the very rough talking points/ Qs & As we sent to you just before 1:00. I've accepted the redline/ strike out changes and have attached a clean copy. It is still a bit of a hodge podge due to the time crunch, multiple authors and multiple directions that we went in before receiving the questions for the panel discussion yesterday afternoon. If you would like additional information on any points covered in the attached document, please let us know.
